

TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

BERKELEY, CAL., FRIDAY FEBRUARY 21, 1896.

NUMBER 87

VOLUME III.

VERY MAD CITIZENS.

THE LIFE OF ANDREW DE SANTOS IN DANGER.

positive. Proof. That the Debauched Three Girls in One Family Under 13 Years of Age.

His Life in Danger.

Andrew de Santos had a narrow escape from being lynched in Alameda. He was arrested on a charge of running Susan Preneck, aged 13 years, who lives with her parents on Bay street.

The prisoner is carefully guarded by the police, who are prepared to prevent any attempt to lynch Santos. Mrs. Lydia Presanti, Secretary of the Humane Society, says that a most vigorous prosecution will be made.

Colonel P. H. Bennett of Alameda has investigated the charges. He says that if he should make a public statement of what he has ascertained nothing would save Santos from being lynched by the citizens of Alameda. It is asserted that Santos inveigled the little Preneck girls to his room in the house occupied by C. R. Bennett on Bay street, Santos was placed in jail last Wednesday night on a charge of larceny.

"Santos may congratulate himself that he is not dangling on the end of a rope," said Mrs. Prescott. "If Colonel Dickinson had made his public statement nothing would have saved him. Four little girls have been ruined. This is the most horrible case in the history of the county. Of course, I do not want to see this man lynched. I have a full confession of the girls. We have tried not to stir up the people in this matter, so we have held back our mouths. The mother and father of the girls are ignorant people, and they did not know what was going on."

Looking Backwards.

News has been received in Berkeley of the abandonment of the colony scheme by the Alturians at Mark West, Sonoma county. The colony was largely a Berkeley enterprise, most of the members being Berkeleyans, and a large number of Berkeley citizens were interested in the project. The colony was organized in Berkeley in 1894, the principal promoters being Rev. E. B. Payne of the Unitarian church, Allen V. Morse, C. S. Preble, J. C. Aiken and W. R. Batten. The colonists incorporated, and purchased a rich and valuable tract of land at Mark West, near Santa Rosa, paying about one tenth of the purchase price. A large part of the remainder is still due.

The plan of the Alturian society was largely to bring the Alturians "looking backward." It was to be a thoroughly co-operative community, all members being on an equal footing, all doing an equal amount of work and sharing equally in the proceeds. The principal cause of the failure of the project is believed to be that the members were not experienced farmers, and consequently failed to realize the full benefits of the labor they expended upon the soil. There have also been difficulties in the way of dissensions, and it has been charged by members that other members were not living up to the equality altruistic agreement and were shirking their share of the work. Many of the colonists at Alturia will remain there. The enterprise will be continued as a commercial project, the society conducting such enterprises as its articles of incorporation will allow, with the altruistic features abandoned.

Shoes Half-Soled 65 Cents. When you go to the city leave your old shoes with A. Bredlie, 26 Market street near the ferry, to be repaired; first-class work guaranteed—70mi.

Oakland Celebration.

Two goddesses of liberty and thirteen other divinities are to pose in the parade next Saturday in honor of George Washington's Birthday. Miss Florence Jordan is one of the goddesses and she will ride on a float drawn by six white horses. On another float emblematic of the Ship of State, Mrs. James H. McKim will personally the other goddesses. Surrounding this deity of patriotism will be grouped thirteen young women representing the original thirteen States of the Union. The work of decorating the streets along the line of march is progressing satisfactorily. Grand Marshal Henry P. Dalton and his chief of staff, Samuel P. Bodwell, are daily in receipt of notices from organizations—desiring places in the line of parade. Numerous floats will provide features of interest to the procession in addition to the many marching bodies of troops, mechanics, firemen, school children and members of secret societies. After the parade has been dismissed interest will center in the rowing regatta at Lake Merritt. There the South End and the Alameda Boat Club will contest a four-oared barge race. There will also be contests in single shells between Frank Dupless and J. Carmon of the South Ends, and S. J. Pembroke of the Alameda Boat Club. The single outrigger skills and four-oared barge races between single and married men will follow. Much interest is manifested in the four-oared outrigger shell race between the University and Columbia Rowing Club crews.

About the Wharf.

The GAZETTE in its issue of last evening, stated that a meeting of the West Berkeley Progressive Club held on Tuesday evening last, information had been given to the club that twenty-three feet of water could be obtained 3000 feet from the foot of Bancroft way. Since this publication was made, a gentleman who opposed the bonds at the last election, has been going around with a copy of the paper stating that it was the desire of a few property owners on Bancroft way to have the wharf at the foot of that street, so that it would benefit their property. We have talked with a great many of the members of the club, and the universal answer has been, it makes no difference what street the wharf is on as far as we are concerned, Bancroft way, Delaware street or University avenue, although we would prefer that it would be at the foot of University avenue, as that is a wide street and business could be handled better on that street than anywhere else.

Mr. Niehaus and Mr. Hadlen and several others who are taking an active interest in the building of a wharf, are of the same opinion. They have not a particular street at the foot of which they want the wharf built. They want it where it will be of the greatest public benefit, no matter what street it is. We hope that the people of West Berkeley will not allow an avowed enemy of the wharf to mix them up in discussions of location. The wharf will be built wherever the public desires it and not for the benefit of this or any other property owner. It will be a general public work, and will be placed where the general public desires it, which, in most probabilities, would be at the foot of Delaware street.

Mr. Moore of Wildcat Creek is short twelve head of cattle from his ranch. It is either on account of broken fences or else there are rustlers around. That a large number of Berkeley people will go to Oakland tomorrow to witness the parade and the regatta which will take place in the afternoon on Lake Merritt. That services will be held in the West Berkeley Methodist Church on Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sunday school at 10 A. M. and Epworth League at 6:30 P. M. The pastor, Henry Pearce, will officiate both morning and evening.

That the Committee of the Whole will meet again tonight to establish the water rates for the ensuing year. Your portrait three months life size crayon, $5; water color $3. Tissue paper and paper flowers lessons given, 25 cents. De Pons Portrait Company, 511 San Pablo avenue, Oakland.

HE WANTS MONEY.

JOHN R. PERKINS OF LORIN SUES FOR $10,000 DAMAGES. For the Shot That Was Fired Into His Body by Albert Menzenmeyer Last Christmas.

Sued for a Shot.

John R. Perkins has no intention of compromising his troubles with Albert Menzenmeyer, who shot and seriously wounded him last Christmas eve at LORIN. Perkins will press the criminal action against his assailant, and also proposes, if possible, to recover by civil process a round judgment for the injury inflicted on him. Yesterday Perkins brought suit in the Superior Court to recover $10,000 damages from Menzenmeyer as an outcome of the shooting. Perkins claims he has been incapacitated for a long while to come from pursuing his business. He has been confined to his room for weeks, and at this juncture is very lame and weak from the effects of the wound inflicted upon him. He asks also for $500 to recompense himself for the amount his attendance has cost him.

It is Said.

That the editor of the Shattuck avenue "Circular" is journeying at Lytton Springs. That the question of bonds will not down, and that the friends of both school and what will carry it right. That the new building being erected by Mr. Mitchell on San Pablo avenue is almost completed. That the wife of Mose Morris the popular conductor on the Berkeley local is very ill, and it is thought that she will not be able to live through the night.

That the ordinance regulating the speed of trains in the town of Berkeley appears in this issue of the GAZETTE. That the Foresters of West Berkeley intend having a fine time tomorrow evening and that they have invited a large number of their friends to participate with them. That Miss Anna Dann who is known to many people in Berkeley was burned to death at West Oakland last evening while filling a lighted lamp with coal oil.

That Manager Flemming of the Sun line today perfecting the telephone system. He desires any person having complaints to make to send him up once telephone No. 85 Oakland, and he will try and rectify the same. That the rocks put on San Pablo avenue by the Streets Superintendent, have improved that thoroughfare very much. It is a pity, however, that the magnificent city could not be completed and thus make a good street of all the thoroughfares within the limits of Berkeley. That the Streets Superintendent and Engineer are feeling a little better. That the fact that they have moved into handsome quarters in the Town Hall.

That there is a bad smell that greets passers by at the corner of Tenth street and University avenue that should be investigated. Peralt Camp, No. 123, Woodmen of the World of Berkeley, met in regular session last Tuesday night, with a large number of the neighbors present. Two applications were received and accepted. A committee was appointed to arrange for an "increase meeting" which will probably take place in about three weeks, the object of which will be to increase the camp's present membership, and in a general way, awaken an interest in the camp's welfare.

The San Francisco Examiner is making several experiments with the cathode ray. It has taken pictures of the interior of pill boxes, the human mouth, screws in a pine board, fowling, etc. It has not, however, been able to photograph the inside of the Chronicle's circulation books. Perhaps the "cathode ray" would rather not see and make public the figures that it would there find by the use of the Cathode ray.

Golden Gate.

John Thomas, who was thrown from a horse a day or two since and quite seriously injured as to his head and arm, is now recovering. The registration officers here are quite busy employed at present and County Clerk Jordan's living corps as it were, going from place to place, also corraling quite a number of would-be voters.

An agent of the Dinges water company, now investigating "patent" here, claims that the water gate of that company on San Pablo avenue has been so manipulated by some one that the water supply of that district has been much interfered with, the water in the pipes running through this part of the town having become stagnant through the lack of pressure. No other explanation of the difficulty has as yet been reached. The Methodist church choir of this place has resolved itself into a choral society with somewhat ambitious purposes. It is the intention of this organization to produce from time to time various popular cantatas, and it is now practicing upon the well known opera "Lohengrin," which it will produce in the near future.

A wedding party left here last evening to take part in the nuptial exercises consequent upon the joining as man and wife in San Francisco of Miss P. G. M. Marshall of Ohio and P. G. Broad of Ind. P. G. Broad gave one of his noted humorous recitations of his noted humorous recitations particularly birthdays, and said that this was a birthday indeed as it was the first time since the lodge was initiated that the day fell on the regular night of meeting. P. G. M. Hill made a few remarks as to the growth and principles of the order. P. G. Boynton gave a short history of the Lodge, and I. A. Boynton first talked of inducting a lodge of Odd Fellows and on Oct. 3d of that year a meeting of seven members was held to discuss the subject. "Between that time and the date of instituting the Lodge fifteen meetings were held various places, there being no hall or other suitable place in town met in—offices, churches and even in railroad cars. The lodge was instituted with twelve charter members, viz: John Williamson, F. H. Payne, Joseph Chapin, William Ellis, I. A. Boynton, G. S. Tallman, F. J. Kays, T. H. Anthony, S. C. Clark, Joseph Funnell, G. B. Metcalf and F. B. Tarbit. They were at that time $400 in debt, and had a contract to pay three years $16 per month rent to Mr. Clapp who had built what is now the Pythian Hall for them. This had to be paid and the total income of the lodge amounted to $16 per month. At the end of the first year the lodge found itself free from debt and in possession of a small sum in the treasury. Since that time the lodge has gone steadily upward. In 1884, finding its quarters too small, the present hall was built, the lodge taking $100 shares of the stock in the same, it now owns 7000 shares, and to members of other lodges about $35,000.

After P. G. Boynton had concluded the 125 members present adjourned to the banquet hall where a plentiful supply of those things that gratify the inner man had been prepared, and there they enjoyed themselves until a late hour. Among the other speakers were D. D. G. M. Jackson, Grand Secretary George T. Shaw, P. G. Parrish, Crossitt, P. G. M. Slater, of Ohio and P. G. Robert Burns of Humboldt.

The Crescent Athletic Club gave a reception to their friends last evening in their hall on Addison. It was what is called "Gentlemen's Night" to distinguish the monthly entertainment which this club gives under the name of "Ladies Night." The program last evening pertained more to masculinity than the reception given about two weeks ago. At an early hour the seats were filled with an eager audience which was filled with the idea that something good in the athletic line was in store for the lookers on. They were not disappointed. For some unexplained reason there is always a delay in the commencing of exercises in an athletic exhibition. It was not long last evening, but enough so to make the audience get a little uneasy. The exhibition, consisted of boxing and wrestling by members of the Club and an extra act in boxing by two young men from San Francisco, Mr. Cuneo of the San Francisco Athletic BERKELEY LODGE, NO. 270 CELEBRATES ITS BIRTHDAY. A Large Number of Young Men Entertained Last Night by the Crescent Club.

I. O. O. F. Lodge Celebration.

Berkeley Lodge No. 270, I. O. O. F., celebrated the 10th anniversary of the Lodge last night in the Odd Fellows Hall. As soon as the regular business had been transacted, P. G. J. W. Striker took the chair as President of the evening. The Veterans Odd Fellows Association were introduced and P. G. Fin. Harmin spoke, welcoming the visitors. P. G. Bluck, president of the Veterans Association, responded in behalf of the Association and visiting brothers. P. G. M. Wm. H. Barnes then made a short speech. "The world is very small," he said, "in 1886 I attended a session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge in Baltimore and tonight there are four members present whom I met then for the first time. I refer to P. G. Fin. Harmin of Ohio, P. G. M. Hill of Col. P. M. Marshall of Ohio and P. J. Slater of Ind. P. G. BY THE ROPE ROUTE.

Club and Mr. Burke of the St. Francis Athletic Club. Master of Ceremonies S. H. Metcalf announced the opening act on the program to be a boxing encounter in which Messrs. Rodgers, Berry, Anthony and Binslie would take part. Time was soon called and the athletes entered the circle, which had been squared, with smiling faces that did not leave as long as they were inside the ropes. These gentlemen showed a proficiency in the art of boxing that the audience hardly thought could exist and many cheers followed the close of the act.

The usual wait occurred when Mr. Metcalf said that Messrs. Volmer, Thompson, Foss and Kroman would wrestle for all there was in it and there appeared to be a great deal in it. These athletes received applause at the end of each round as well as a stronger one at the conclusion. Interest in the entertainment was now on the increase and when Mr. Metcalf announced the names of O. E. Pucker and Owens and Armstrong and Richter as boxers there was a noise which an outsider might have thought to be "fire." They soon got to work and matters were made lively enough to keep the heads of the audience moving to catch a sight of the different moves like and heads of wheat in a gale of wind. The rounds were finished satisfactorily to all concerned. Now was brought on the desert of the dinner, Messrs. Cuneo and Burke were announced for a three-round appearing match. The former, gentleman is a member of the San Francisco Athletic Club and the latter of the Francis, also of San Francisco. A generous applause welcomed these athletes to the arena, and when time was called the hand shaking was cordial. Very close attention was paid to all the various points made, and due applause was given when either one made an extra hit. The sparring throughout was very good and in some cases extra good. The audience was more than pleased with the display of Athletic ability by these young gentlemen, and hope to see them again before any length of time they are destroyed.

The building was leveled within an hour, and many firemen had narrow escapes when the walls fell. The loss is unknown but will exceed $200,000. The Foy block is beginning to fill up. Another store next to the Free Reading room has been rented and will soon be occupied. The fruit trees about town are all covered with blossoms which augurs well for a fine crop of fruit a few months later. There will be a spiritualistic circle in rooms 10 and 12, Hann block, Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week at 8 o'clock sharp. Dr. Parker medium. John Matthews, the former driver of the Matignon Brewery wagon, is now in the employ of Port Costa Brewery. He is a good fellow and well liked. The University students are now preparing to don their jumpers and overalls and do manual labor for a few days while building trails and beautifying the University grounds. C. A. Bailey, the real estate man, has removed his office to San Francisco. J. J. Mason has been appointed his agent in Berkeley, and that gentleman will occupy Mr. Bailey's old quarters on the corner of Center street and Shattuck avenue.

One would be led to believe that the Shattuck Avenue Circular that West Berkeley and Torin was infested with hoodlums. Nobody sees these hoodlums except the Circular's reporters. But then but little harm will be done as very few people ever read the Circular. Joe Ruppiller of the American Brewery was thrown from his wagon on the Pinole road last Thursday. He received a few scratches, but the jolly fellow is again on deck. Rev. William Hall Moreland, pastor of St. Luke's Church of San Francisco, will preach this evening at St. Marks Church on the "Three Temptations of Our Blessed Lord." This will be the first of three sermons on the same subject.

Professor David Starr Jordan of Stanford University will deliver the second lecture of the course that is being given under the auspices of the Unitarian Church at Stiles' Hall this evening, Feb. 24. The Professor will take for his subject "The Disappearance of Great Men From Public Life."

Watch This Date.

The ladies of the North Berkeley Congregational Church will give an entertainment and supper, Friday, Feb. 21. Tables to be set at $3.50, 6:15 and 7:00 P. M. A fine entertainment will be given during the evening. Price of dinner 25 cts. Children under 12, 15 cents. 80-td

Something New.

Mrs. Treemen has opened a branch bakery, confectionery and notion store at the corner of Eighth street and University avenue. Four large loaves of bread for 10 cents, and other things in proportion. THE MURDERER OF MR. AND MRS. WEBBER HANGED.

Fitzsimmons and Mather on Their Way to the Fighting Grounds. Train late. Special train to the execution.

By the Rope Route.

Folsom, Feb. 21.—Ivan Kovalev, the ex-Russian convict who murdered Mr. and Mrs. Webber at Sacramento, was hanged at the prison this morning. The condemned man went to his death as he lived—unrepentant. There was no hitch in the execution, and the murderer died almost without a struggle.

To Fight in Mexico.

Sanderson, Texas, Feb. 21.—The train on the Southern Pacific road, which left El Paso at 10 o'clock last night, eastbound, will reach Langtry on the Mexican border at 3:30 o'clock today, being two hours late. The present expectation is that the cars containing the prize fighters will be set out either at Langtry or Shulima or Viaduct, within fifteen miles of there; that the party will cross the Rio Grande river into the Mexican State of Coahuila, and a ring be pitched at the foot of Mosquito mountain.

A Depot Burned.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 21.—Fire was discovered in the big brick union passenger station of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad at 1 a. m. and it spread so rapidly that in fifteen minutes the building was doomed. The train dispatchers and many employees in the office had barely time to escape, and all records of the road were destroyed. The building was leveled within an hour, and many firemen had narrow escapes when the walls fell. The loss is unknown but will exceed $200,000.

Indiana Democrats.

Indianapolis, Feb. 21.—The Democratic State Central Committee yesterday fixed upon June 24 as the date for holding the State Convention in this city. No particulars were given.

Waller is Free.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Secretary Olney received a cablegram this morning from Ambassador Eustis, saying John L. Waller had been released from prison. No particulars were given.

To Buy A Warship.

New York, Feb. 21.—"The Herald's" correspondent in Montevideo, Uruguay, telegraphs that the German residents of that city have taken steps to raise a fund with which to purchase a warship, to be presented to the Emperor of Germany. An appeal to the Germans of many. An appeal to the Germans of Argentina to join in the undertaking has been issued.

Berkeley people working in San Francisco can purchase the finest beef pork or mutton sausages etc. at the New Perry market, at 41 Spear street, corner of Market, street, 79mi.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

It is with pleasure that every American notes that once more is the name of Washington being revered, and the anniversary of his birth being properly celebrated. For a great many years this day was looked forward to with as much pleasure and anticipation as even the Fourth of July, and we were taught to revere it. Of late years, however, the day has not been celebrated with that pomp and vigor of former years. In fact our people seemed to forget that to General George Washington they were indebted to a great extent for their prosperity and happiness, and it looked for a time as though the anniversary of his birth as a public holiday would soon become obsolete.

This is changed now, and why? Because three or four years ago the society known as the Junior Order of American Mechanics, organized for patriotic motives, came to the conclusion that the American people while they were chasing and grasping for the elusive dollar were forgetting not only their flag but their country. They saw that something must be done to bring the people back to the loyalty. No surer way presented itself than to do it through the children of the public schools.

This organization then purchased several American flags and presented them to the public schools. This was followed by exercise concerning the flag and the salutation of the flag every morning as it was hoisted to the staff on top of the building there to float all day as a signal that beneath its stately folds the future men and women of America are being educated both in loyalty and patriotism as well as in mathematics and other studies.

Since those first few flags were purchased, loyalty and patriotism has become contagious, and today every city, town and hamlet in these United States, old glory floats proudly on the breeze over every public school. It needed but this start to bring Washington's birthday once more into prominence, and today no school closes for the holiday without having patriotic exercises.

CUBAN INDEPENDENCE.

One of the most exciting days of this session of Congress took place yesterday, when the following resolution in reference to the recognizing Cuban independence was offered:

"Resolved: That the President is hereby requested to interpose his friendly offices with the Spanish Government for the recognition of the independence of Cuba."

Senators Lodge and Morgan were particularly forcible in their language. Morgan expressed the belief that war between the United States and Spain would result from recognizing the Cubans as belligerents.

Lodge, in comparing the former commander, General Martinez Campos with the present one said: Martinez

Campos, the ablest general in Spain, has been recalled because he failed to put down this insurrection—recalled when the insurgent troops had been actually in the suburbs of Havana and in his place has been sent a man whose only reputation known to the world is that of the most cold-blooded brutality in the last war for liberty in that island.

Senator Morgan said, "My opinion is that Congress has the perfect, independent, absolute right to make recognition of belligerency, or a declaration of independence, and if it is necessary to enforce it by any military movement at sea or on land, it has the right to command the Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy to go on the field if it is necessary and expose his person to the execution of that order."

Senator Cameron gave notice that if the resolution was adopted requesting Spain to act, and she did not, he would then move for the immediate and complete recognition of Cuban independence.

The debate lasted for three hours and Senator Foster of the Spanish Legation was a close and interested listener throughout the whole time. It is the impression in Washington that Cuban independence will be recognized by the United States no matter how serious the consequences may be. The Cubans have organized a Government. All of its officers are commissioned and from an army of 500 men it has arisen to one of 45,000, every one of whom is fighting with a price on his head and a rope around his neck. The United States must by every means in its power put a stop to this inhuman and uncivilized warfare that is now going on at no matter what price, and the only way to do it is by recognizing Cuba as a belligerent, and we believe that they will do so.

NO PAPER TOMORROW.

In order that the employees of the GAZETTE may take part in the patriotic exercises of Washington's Birthday, there will be no paper issued from this office tomorrow.

Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz has applied for admission to the New York bar upon the motion of General B. F. Tracy.

San Diego is making great preparations for its water carnival which takes place on San Diego bay on the evening of February 29th.

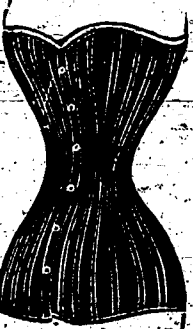

Bill Nye, the humorist, has probably painted his last line and delivered his last lecture as he is paralyzed and his death is only a question of a few days.

Stockton is now laying its plans to get the Democratic State Convention which is to be held on June 15th. San Quentin or Folsom would be a more suitable place to hold it, as some of the delegates could then be kept where they belong. Others would recognize in both places as old abiding places of theirs.

Ivan Koyaljev was hanged today for the brutal murder of Mr. and Mrs. Webber at Sacramento. Durrant was also to have been hanged today for debauching and murdering Blanche Lecomte. He has influential friends and money and his sentence was not carried out. The poor Russian who had no friends and no money paid the penalty of his crime. This is California justice.

The sensations and sensational testimony that was taken in the investigation of Dr. Brown, yesterday, goes to show that if that gentleman is not guilty, he has been a mighty indiscreet man for a clergyman, and was not at all particular about the company that he kept. His manner of examining witnesses yesterday was most remarkable. It would seem to an outsider that no matter what the outcome of the investigation may be, the First Congregational Church of San Francisco would be much better off by dispensing with the services of the Rev. C. O. Brown.

Fullon Street Grading.Notice of Street Work

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON the 25th day of January, A. D. 1896, the Board of Trustees of the Town of Berkeley passed its Resolution of Intention, Number 29, to order the following street work to be done, to wit:

That Fullon Street in said Town, from the southerly line of Ward Street to the northerly line of Prince Street be graded and curbed to the center of the street, and that the walks removed shall be replaced by a road surface as possible. All wooden crosswalks shall be taken up in a careful manner, and laid to one side of the work. Excepting from the

For further particulars reference is hereby made to said Resolution on file in the office of the Town Clerk.

Coffee Drinking.

There are some persons who indulge to a considerable excess in coffee drinking, and many more who go to even greater excess in the use of tea. It has accordingly been contended by some abstinents from these two substances that they are capable of generating a form of insanity, and that the excessive use of coffee drinking will give rise to serious mischief. The inordinate consumer of strong tea may become a dyspeptic, a sleepless hypochondriac, with a nervous system, the victim of a deep, intense melancholy, with, in some cases, indulging in black and strong, may lose all appetite for healthy food, eat little, suffer from tremors, acute neuralgic and other pains, excessive thirst, agonizing headache and a feeling of intolerable dryness and heat. He may become pinched and emaciated, have a feeble circulation and a constant fear of falling, with a blurred vision, as if looking through light brownish media.

These, however, are the symptoms of tea and coffee poisoning. They bear witness to the fact that the excessive use of these two substances, and the consequent intoxication, causes the anæsthesia and paralysis of alcoholic drunkenness. Dr. Kerr, in his practice, has never seen an uncontrollable craving for tea or coffee to which all natural affections and duties were subordinated. He is therefore unable to recognize these phases of excessive drinking as manifestations of chronic mania, the disease which is characterized by an overpowering impulse to intoxication at all risks.—New York Sun.

Pope Leo's Reading.

The pope's favorite poets are Virgil and Dante. He knows a great part of both by heart and takes pleasure in quoting them. When Father Michael, the apostolic prefect to Ethiopia, was taking his leave, with the other Franciscans who accompanied him to Africa, his holiness recited to them with great spirit Dante's canto upon St. Francis.

The pope reads the newspapers, passages of interest being marked for him by readers in order to save him time. He frequently writes letters to the bishops and encyclicals in a polished and Ciceroian style of Latin. The encyclicals are printed at the private press of the Vatican, an institution founded by him and furnished with all modern improvements. They are first published in the Osservatore Romano, the official daily paper of the Vatican, and then translated into Italian and other languages and sent out to the bishops abroad. Leo XIII writes excellent verses, both in Latin and Italian, and likes to see and talk with men of letters as well as to read their works. Two years ago he requested Professor Branelli of Perugia to buy for him the poetical works of the Abbe Zauella. The request is characteristic, for his holiness insisted upon paying for the book like any one else.—Marion Crawford in Century.

Elkins and Camden.

Stephen B. Elkins tells an interesting story of his election to the senate. "I was sitting in my study at my country home," said he, "awaiting the return that should tell me whether or not I had been chosen to take the place of Senator Camden. The operator at the telegraph station had orders to open all telegrams addressed to me, and to telephone their contents to me immediately. Suddenly the telephone bell rang, and the children's governess, who answered the 'phone, came to me and told me that the person at the other end of the wire was saying something about 'shoes.' She couldn't quite make it out. 'Oh,' said I, 'it's my wife's shoemaker, probably. Tell him to let the matter rest until tomorrow.' She delivered the message, but returned shortly to say that the man insisted on talking to me. I went to the telephone. It was the telegraph operator, and the message he was trying to transmit to me was: 'When shall I send you my shoes?' Johnson R. Camden. Then I knew that I had been chosen to fill the shoes of that worthy gentleman."

Useless Expense in Chicago.

He looked over the plans for the new building that he intended to have erected and shook his head. "What's the matter?" asked the architect. "Too elaborate," was the reply; "too much unnecessary fancy work to suit me." "No more than is usual on first class buildings," protested the architect. "What would you have left off?" "The ornamental work at the top." "But, my dear sir," protested the architect, "that is quite the thing now. We make the buildings plain except at the bottom and the top." "Well," returned the capitalist decidedly, "it's all right to have a little ornamentation for the first story, but I object to paying for art work for the angels. We'll have the top plain."—Chicago Post.

Dean Hole, in his "Little Tour in America," gives the following good story, which was picked up at an entertainment given in his honor by the Lotus club of New York. The quaintest story of the evening was told by Dr. Greer of a tedious, monotonous preacher who had exhausted the patience of the hearers by an elaborate dissertation on the four greater prophets, and when, to their great disgust, he passed on to the minor and asked, "And now, my brethren, where shall we place Hosea?" a man rose from the congregation and made answer: "You can place him here, sir. I'm off."

It is a vain thought to flee from the work that God appoints us for the sake of finding a greater blessing instead of seeking it where alone it is to be found—in loving obedience.—George Eliot.
